THE PLAYBOOK

How artists and creators make REAL money here.

No label. No agency. No begging for a deal.
Your fans pay YOU.
But nobody hands you anything - you bring your people,
you do the work, you eat.

joincomehere.com

HERE is not for the lazy, and it is not for the weak.

FIRST, THE TRUTH

Every other platform rents your talent. Streaming services pay you a fraction of a penny when somebody plays your song - roughly three to five thousandths of a dollar per play - and they keep the fan, the data, and almost all of the money.

HERE works the other way around. Your fans buy tickets and hand them to YOU - as gifts on your lives, your posts, your profile, and your songs. Every ticket they give you is worth half a cent in your wallet, real money you cash out to your own bank. No label takes a cut of your music. No agency stands between you and your people.

Here is the part nobody can do for you: the money pool is your fans. If you bring nobody, you earn nothing - and that is exactly how it should be. If you bring your people and you show up for them, this platform will pay you more per fan than streaming ever has. This playbook shows you every switch, every number, and the work that makes it real.

TURN EVERYTHING ON (IN ORDER)

1. Make your profile
   Sign up free at joincomehere.com. Use the name your fans know you by, a clear photo, and a bio that says what you do. Your profile is your stage - dress it like one.
2. Turn on Creator Mode
   Settings, then Creator Mode: ON. This is the master switch for earning. With it off, nobody can gift you anything. With it on, your profile, your pages, and your posts can all take gifts.
3. Link your bank (Stripe)
   Go to the Tickets page and connect your bank through Stripe. This is how cash-outs land in your account automatically once the owner approves them. No bank link means slow, by-hand payouts. Link it on day one.
4. Turn on Media HERE
   Settings, then Media HERE. Pick Artist if the music is yours, Music if you are sharing sounds you love. Your tracks appear on your profile with a player your fans can hear everywhere on HERE.
5. Upload your tracks - and answer the rights question honestly
   Every upload asks: do you own the rights, or is this shared for listening? Own-rights tracks can be gifted - that is where music money lives. Listening-only tracks can never take gifts. Claim rights that are not yours and you are done here. Keep it honest.
6. Set your tip goal
   Settings, then your tip goal - a label and a number, like 'New microphone, 20,000 tickets.' It shows on your profile and fills up as fans gift you. People fund goals they can see.

7. Grab your invite link

   The Invite page gives you a personal link. Every person who joins through it is tied to you - and when they start earning, HERE pays you a bonus of ten percent of what they earn. Not out of their pocket. Out of ours. Bringing people literally pays you twice.

THE MONEY PIPES - EVERY WAY YOU EARN

One rule runs under everything on this page: 1 ticket gifted to you = half a cent in your wallet. 2,000 tickets = $10 = cash-out time. Fans buy tickets at about 100 for $0.99 - pocket change for them, real money for you when it stacks.

1. Live gifts

Go live - solo, or on the talk-show panel - and fans send gifts that fly across the screen to your tile. This is the fastest money on HERE. A live with energy makes more in ten minutes than a song makes in a month of streams.

2. Track gifts (Verified Artists)

Fans can gift your own-rights songs directly on your profile. Your music earns while you sleep.

3. Post and Peep gifts

Your posts and clips can take gifts too. The post you made on Tuesday can still be earning on Sunday.

4. Profile and Page gifts

Anybody who lands on you can gift you on the spot - your profile is a tip jar that never closes.

5. Ticket-door lives

Set a ticket price on your live. Fans pay it once, it lands in your earnings the second they walk in - before you sing a note or say a word.

6. Locked content

Lock a post or a message at your price. Fans pay tickets to open it, forever theirs.

7. The invite bonus

Ten percent of everything the people you invited earn - paid by HERE, not by them. Recruit grinders and their work feeds you.

THE WHAT-IF SCALE - RUN YOUR OWN NUMBERS

No promises - arithmetic. Find your row. These are fans who actually gift, not followers who scroll past. Fans gift in tickets; remember, 2,000 tickets = $10 to you.

A ten-minute live

25 fans watching. 10 of them gift an average of 200 tickets each. That is 2,000 tickets - $10 - in ten minutes. On a streaming service, ten dollars takes roughly 2,500 plays.

One good night (a two-hour live)

60 fans in the room. 30 gift an average of 500 tickets. 15,000 tickets = $75 for the night. Plus whatever your ticket door charged on the way in: 60 fans at a 200-ticket door is another 12,000 tickets = $60 before you even start.

The monthly ladder (per-fan gifting, per month)

Your crowd	Each fan gives	Tickets	You make
10 loyal fans	500 tickets each	5,000	$25
100 fans	500 tickets each	50,000	$250
100 fans	2,000 tickets each	200,000	$1,000
1,000 fans	500 tickets each	500,000	$2,500
1,000 fans	2,000 tickets each	2,000,000	$10,000

One song, one gift

A fan gifts your track 100 tickets: that is 50 cents to you, from one fan, in one tap. To make the same 50 cents from streaming plays at roughly $0.004 a play, you would need about 125 plays. One real fan here is worth a hundred streams there - because here the fan is handing you money, not renting your song for dust.

Read the ladder again and be honest about which line is yours today. Then do the work to climb it. The numbers do not care about your feelings - they care about your fans and your effort.

CASHING OUT - AND GETTING PAID IN PUBLIC

When your earned tickets hit 2,000 ($10), cash out from the Tickets page and say where it goes. The owner approves it, Stripe sends it to your linked bank, and that is it. No $100 minimums. No three-month waits.

Your first paid cash-out puts you on the Wall of Paid - joincomehere.com/paidwall - a public page of creators HERE has actually paid. That card is proof. Share it. Nothing recruits your fans like seeing you got paid for real.

THE LABEL: HERE RECORDS

HERE is also an independent record label, and it signs artists from inside the platform. Here is the whole deal, in plain words:

> Apply in Settings to be a Verified Artist - or get spotted. Verified Artists wear the golden music note in the clear bubble on their profile.

> Verified Artists unlock track gifts, and their plays and likes become the scoreboard everybody can see.

> At 40,000 plays you show up contract-ready. The owner decides who gets offered the deal.

> The contract: HERE markets you, sponsors you on the platform, and can back you from the Artist Fund. The label fee is 3 percent of your cash-outs while you are signed. That is the whole fee.

> Your music stays 100 percent yours. HERE claims no ownership of your songs, your name, or your masters. Ever.

> Either side can end the contract at any time - and when it ends, everything in your wallet stays yours to cash out. Nobody can claw your earnings back.

> Breaches end it fast: fake plays, fake likes, fake gifts, or claiming rights to music that is not yours.

Major labels sign you to own you. HERE signs you to grow you - because when you eat, everybody here eats.

THE WORK - YOUR WEEKLY RHYTHM

Talent is common. Showing up is rare. This is the rhythm that turns a profile into a paycheck:

> Post every day. Something real - a clip, a verse, a thought. Your fans cannot gift a ghost.

> Go live on a schedule and say the schedule out loud. The Lobby is open every night - Ken drops in around 10 PM Central. Be in rooms before you expect rooms to be in yours.

> Clip your best 30 seconds and post it everywhere - with your invite link. Your other platforms are billboards. HERE is the bank.

> Bring five people a day. Five real fans a day is 150 a month, and the invite bonus pays you on all of them forever.

> Gift other creators a little. Community is the algorithm here - people remember who showed up for them.

> Show up for other artists' lives. Get on panels. Be interesting on the mic. Regulars become Verified Artists. Verified Artists become signed artists.

HERE IS NOT FOR THE LAZY.

It is for the one who gets up, streams, posts the music, brings the people, and does it again tomorrow.

If that is you - welcome home. Go make your money.

Honest-print note: the what-if numbers in this playbook are arithmetic examples from HERE's real rates (1 gifted ticket = $0.005 to the creator; fans buy about 100 tickets for $0.99), not promises or guarantees. What you earn depends on your fans and your work. Streaming comparisons use the widely reported approximate range of $0.003 to $0.005 per play.
